

Mercer County Fair Open Beef Show
Monday, July 28, 2025
Mercer County Fairgrounds

6:00pm - Livestock Pavilion
$2 per class entry fee

No on-site weighing
Total premiums offered: Approximately $7160

RULES

1. All cattle to be exhibited at the Mercer County Fair MUST, upon entering the grounds, be accompanied by an official health certificate (statement or other papers not accepted) showing they are free from Brucellosis (Bang's Disease).
2. All animals must be properly identified by ear tag number or legible tattoo. Animals infected with warts, ringworm or any other infectious or communicable disease will not be allowed to show.
3. Cattle may arrive on the grounds after 4:00 pm the day prior to the show.
4. Each breed with 6 head or more will have its own breed class. Breeds with less than 6 head present will be grouped in a class designated as "other" breeds. The beef show committee reserves the right to split classes so that there are no more than 15 animals per class.
5. Only one show person in ring with entry.
6. Cow/calf classes show as an "all breeds" class with classes broken on age of cow.
7. NO 2 year old bulls.
8. All decisions by rules and grievance committee are final.
9. Exhibitors have to abide by Mercer County Beef Show rules, no exceptions.
10. $2 per head registration fee will be deducted from your County Fair Beef Show class premiums. No refunds given.
11. Market classes show as an "all breeds" class.
12. No dairy animals allowed to participate in show.
13. All premium checks will be mailed.
